

Series: God in Search of Man

Week 1 - Genesis 3

Reader: John 1:9-14

The bigger picture isn't about _____ but instead about _____.

“Where are you?” (v 9)

The question is intended that person who _____ that question to answer it _____.

“the woman you gave me...” (v 12)

How often do we blame _____ for our failures?

The serpent created something _____ them that they had never _____ before: The sense that something was _____.

The way this story is intended is that every person will read _____ into this story as the human beings and say... “this is _____ story.”

The issue of sin for this story and the rest of the Bible has less to do with _____ right and wrong and more to do with this _____: I want to be my _____.

God's search for us is about _____ the things that we _____ do for ourselves because we are not _____.

God is searching for humanity to bring humanity _____ to _____.
