

Week 4: Mind the Gap

Acts 1-2; John 21

We are holy only as we are rightly _____ to God and filled with his _____ Spirit.

The goal isn't to learn how to follow Christ, as important as that is, the goal is to actually live a _____ life.

The act of that development and growth is _____.

What we do in the gap matters:

Come to terms with the _____.

- _____ and _____ (turning over to God) where we've been and what got us there so we don't remain stuck there.

Come to terms with the _____.

- _____ our reluctance to embrace the fullness of God's work in our lives and _____ that reluctance.
- The great danger of our time is not to think that we are doing _____ _____ in our discipleship journey but to assume we have to do _____.

Come to terms with the _____.

- We are willing to enter into the kind of _____ with God where we take our cues from him.
