2. Plan to _____
 - Being consistent isn't the same as being _____.
3. Fall in love with the _____
 - You're not successful when you achieve the goal in the future. You're successful when you _____ God today.

Where is God calling you to be consistent?

Start talking.

- What are some of your initial thoughts when you think about the power of consistency?

Start thinking.

- Which part of this message was the most impactful for you and why?
- On a scale of 1-10, how easy is it for you to be consistent? What are some steps you could take to move closer to a 10?
- Read Daniel 6:4. In what ways or areas of life could you be found faithful, always responsible, and completely trustworthy?

Start sharing.

- Talk about an area of your life in which you want to be more consistent. How would you define your “why” for choosing this area?
- We’re successful when we honor God each day. What do you need to pre-decide today, in order to be successful tomorrow?

Start praying. Be bold and pray with power.

Father, being consistent can be challenging. Please show us where we need more consistency in our lives. Remind us that it's through Your strength that we can be consistent. We're ready to honor You today, Lord. In Jesus' name, amen.

Start doing. Commit to a step and live it out this week.

- Choose one thing that you could be more consistent with this week. It might be reading God’s Word, working out three times, or something completely different.
