- David Allen

What's your unfinished business?

Every decision you make is actually a _____ toward your _____.

I consider my _____ worth nothing.

If you want to finish you need to take the _____
_____.

When you're weak, remember that you never run _____.

Start talking.

- List some qualities of successful people.

Start thinking.

- Which part of the message was the most impactful for you and why?
- What's your typical attitude when you're starting something new, as compared to when you need to finish something up?
- Read 2 Corinthians 8:10-11. What have you started that you still need to finish?

Start sharing.

- What are some differences between enthusiasm and endurance? How could you focus more on endurance this week?
- What specific things has God called you to do? Do your actions show that you're running for yourself or that you're running for God? In what ways could you run for God even more?

Start praying. Be bold and pray with power.

Father, it's often easy for us to start new things, but finishing those things takes perseverance. Please show us the things in our lives that You are calling us to finish. Help us refuse to quit — we are pre-deciding that we are finishers like You. In Jesus' name, amen.

Start doing. Commit to a step and live it out this week.

- What have you committed to that you need to finish? Share it with people that hold you accountable, and then work toward the finish line this week.
