

Is Jesus Enough?

Scripture: John 6:25-35

"I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never go hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty."

John 6:35

Jesus asks us “Why do you seek me?”

Some Seek Jesus...

... for a _____ out of _____ Card.

... to obtain a _____

... to be _____ free from _____ / _____

... when they are _____ with _____

... when they are overwhelmed with _____

Jesus wants us to desire _____ more than the _____ in life.

Jesus wants us to _____ that He came to bring us _____ than a better _____ life.

Is Jesus enough for you?

"More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but one that comes through faith in Christ."

Philippians 3:8-9

Start talking.

- What type of bread are you today? All natural? Rye? Moldy? Crusty? Fresh? Easy to “butter up”?
- Who is the easiest in your family to communicate with? With which person are you often misunderstood?

Start thinking.

- Why are the crowds still searching for Jesus (vv24-26)?
- How does Jesus’ response to their question show the difference between his interests and theirs?
- How are they to work for the food that leads to eternal life?
- What does the crowd ask Jesus to do in order that they can believe him? What is their real interest?
- How does Jesus use their interest in food to illustrate what he wants them to understand? What are the similarities and differences between manna and the “bread of life?”

Start sharing.

- In your culture what is the main reason for following Jesus? What was your original motive?
- How would you describe your daily spiritual diet? Junk food? Frozen food? Baby food? Leftovers? Meat and potatoes?
- Has your familiarity with Jesus ever kept you from seeing who he really is? What can help remove the blinders?

Start praying. Be bold and pray with power.

God, I’m often concerned with the immediate things before me. Help me to look deeper at who you are and my relationship with you. Help me to seek you for who you are and not just what you can do for me.

Start doing. Commit to a step and live it out this week.

- Pray daily for God to reveal Himself to you and one other person you choose to pray for.
- Pray for God’s filling in your life and ask God to overflow His abundant love to those you encounter.
