

Week 5: Writing Chapters

Scripture: Ruth 4

Key Principle: The _____ that you make today will determine the _____ that you tell tomorrow.

3 Things that we need to write a better chapter:

1. The _____ of God.
 - Best understood when read _____

2. _____ Planning.
 - Proverbs 21:5
 - Boaz is joining his chapter with her chapter to create _____.

3. _____ - _____ Prayers.
 - Throughout the story we find very short, ongoing conversational prayer.

Start talking.

- Where did you see God moving in your life this week?

Start thinking.

- Which part of this message was most impactful for you and why? Is there anything you want to learn more about?
- If you had to name the current “chapter” of life you’re in, what would you name it? What would you name the next “chapter” you’re planning for?
- Read Proverbs 21:5. Think about what you want your life to look like a year from now. What plans do you need to put in place to make that happen?

Start sharing.

- Consider a pivotal moment or experience in your life. Talk about how your life would look different if you hadn’t had that experience. How can you see the providence of God as you look back on that time?
- What do faith-filled prayers look like to you? What prayers are you waiting for God to answer? Share these with someone, and spend time praying together.

Start praying. Be bold and pray with power.

Father, thank You for being the perfect Author of our lives. We know You’re moving in our lives, even when we don’t see or understand. Please show us where You’re calling us to make a plan, and give us the faith to pray bold prayers. We believe You are working in all things. In Jesus’ name, amen.

Start doing. Commit to a step and live it out this week.

- Think about your daily habits and routines. Find one new way to honor God in your daily life, and share about it.
